

Green Architecture

The Toledo Chapter of The American Institute of Architects Presents
The Fifth Annual AIA Toledo Celebration of Architecture

AIA Toledo Benefactor Partner Tri-County Block & Brick, in partnership with Architectural Avenues

[Manufacturers' Representatives for Northfield Products & Trenwyth Industries], will present a Lunch & Learn Program on April 8, 2009 entitled Prarie Stone Products: Designing Tactics for Masonry 1.0 AIA CEU

Learn about control joint design and strategies for avoiding spalling, cracking & water damage.

Lunch & Learn Program begins @11:30AM in the McMaster Auditorium Lobby T-LCPL.

Please contact AIAToledo@bex.net for more information & reservations.

5:00 PM April 8, 2009

Tom Kubala, AIA

Principal

Kubala Washatko Architects, Inc.
 Cedarburg, Wisconsin

Tom will present a program on the Leopold Legacy Center, a 2008 AIA Top Ten Green Project and the first facility recognized by the United States Green Building Council as carbon neutral in operation. Other works include the recently completed LEED Gold addition to the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed First Unitarian Society Meeting House in Madison.

Join us for a lecture entitled,

Recent Work: Wholeness & Sustainable Design

1.5 AIA CEU

7:00 PM April 8, 2009

Jonathan Boyer, AIA

Director, Green Consulting & Architecture Studio

Farr Associates

Chicago, Illinois

*Jonathan will present a program on Farr's soon to be completed Yannell Residence. This LEED-Homes Pilot Project participant, with a projected LEED Platinum certification, will be Chicago's first energy producing Net Zero Energy Home. Farr was the first firm in the world to have designed three LEED Platinum Buildings. Join us for a lecture entitled, Recent Work:

Designing Sustainable Human Environments

1.5 AIA CEU

Lectures will be held in the Toledo-Lucas County Public Library, Huntington Meeting Room - Free Admission

A reception will be held between lectures in the Exhibit Gallery.

While in the Exhibit Gallery, view the 2009 AIA Toledo

Art By Architects & Honor Awards Exhibits.

See the First Annual AIA Toledo 2009 Eighth Grade T-Shirt Winning Design.

Food will be provided by SouthBriar Restaurant.

Please contact AIAToledo@bex.net for more information & reservations.