Happy Monday!

I hope you are all having a great start to your Monday and that you are enjoying the last rainy bit of October that we have left.

The Annual Meeting Day on Friday was a success! Despite the gloomy conditions, the rain held off for the tours. We had a great turn-out and the speakers did an amazing job. Thank you to those who attended, our speakers and our sponsors!

For those of you who were unable to attend, I would like to mention that of the two proposed bylaws changes, the first did not pass and the second did pass. (Read the bylaws proposals here).

Attendees were given dots and were instructed to place them next to the Repositioning Issues they deemed most important to the AIA. Do the dot clusters appear where you would expect or does this picture surprise you? The Annual Meeting discussions are not limited to one day, they are meant to fuel new ideas and approaches for the next year, so take your ideas to your fellow architect, to facebook, to twitter and/or where ever you can be heard!

Upcoming Events:

December 13 from 4:30-7:00pm: AIA Michigan, AIA Detroit and the EPC join together for a Holiday Open House at the Beaubien House.

Own a Piece of History and Support the Frank Lloyd Wright Affleck House!

This elegant custom commemorative pen is designed and handmade by Lawrence Technological University School of Architecture alumni Frederick F. Butters, FAIA, Esq. from the few remaining remnants of the Tidewater Cypress wood removed from the Frank Lloyd Wright designed Affleck House during recent maintenance.

Placed on the Michigan State Register for Historic Places in 1978, and the National Register of Historic Places in 1985, the guest register records over 10,000 visitors who have enjoyed the splendor of this magnificent design. All proceeds will be exclusively employed to complete the on-going Affleck House restoration.

Don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity to own an actual piece of Architectural History while supporting a good cause. Act soon as orders will be closed at 100 and no more will ever be made. Fewer than 40 remain!
