FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

American Institute of Architects Elevates Stuart Pettitt, FAIA to the College of Fellows

AIA Fellowship Recognizes Significant Contributions to Profession of Architecture and Society

Detroit–February 15, 2017 – The 2017 Jury of Fellows of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) elevated Stuart Pettitt, FAIA, LEED AP to its prestigious College of Fellows, an honor awarded to members who have made significant contributions to the profession.

Pettitt will be honored at an investiture ceremony at the AIA Conference on Architecture in Orlando, Florida.

The Fellowship program was developed to elevate those architects who have made a significant contribution to architecture and society and who have achieved a standard of excellence in the profession. Election to fellowship not only recognizes the achievements of architects as individuals, but also their significant contribution to architecture and society on a national level.

2017 Fellows

Out of a total AIA membership of over 90,000, approximately 3 percent are distinguished with the honor of fellowship and honorary fellowship. The elevation to fellowship is conferred on architects with at least 10 years of membership in the AIA in one or more of the following nomination categories:

1. Promoted the aesthetic, scientific, and practical efficiency of the profession
2. Advanced the science and art of planning and building by advancing the standards of architectural education, training or practice
3. Coordinated the building industry and the profession of architecture through leadership in the AIA and other related professional organizations
4. Advanced the living standards of people through an improved environment
5. Made the profession of ever-increasing service to society

Stuart Pettitt, FAIA, LEED AP

Stuart Pettitt set a new standard for community college practice and design that transformed mundane facilities into dynamic award winning environments that support educational success.

A rare blend of thought leadership, design creativity, advocacy, and tenacity make Stuart Pettitt a role model for architects and educators who want to change institutions and people for the better. Each year, more than 100,000 students and hundreds of architects, educators, and community members benefit from his architecture and leadership.

About The American Institute of Architects
