

Stan Kaczmarek | Gundlach Champion

Session: Pine Mountain Ski Jump Modifications

Bio: Stan is President of Gundlach Champion, Inc. (GCI). He began his career at GCI as an estimator then was promoted to chief estimator and was responsible for all preconstruction services. In 2019, he was promoted to Senior Vice President. During his more than two decades with GCI, Stan has worked on a variety of projects, including many of the company's largest, such as the City of Marquette Municipal Service Center, Eagle Mine Humboldt Mill, as well as the Ojibwa Casinos in Marquette and Baraga. As President, his responsibilities include complete oversight and management of Gundlach Champion business unit under the Champion, Inc. family of companies. Stan earned a degree in Civil Engineering from Michigan Technological University and is a veteran of US Army.