

AIA Michigan Monday's Minutes

Cathy Mosley, Hon. Aff. AIAMI
Executive Director

September 3, 2013
Edition 9.1

Happy Tuesday!

This week's Monday's Minutes is coming to you today because we observed the Labor Day holiday. I hope all of you had a relaxing weekend at home or on vacation and that you are as ready to tackle September as I am!

On Friday we had our first Tiger Tailgate and I am happy to report that it was a big success-- right up until a torrential rainstorm hit the stadium! Luckily the Tigers were ahead when the game was called, so even though the game was cut short in the 7th inning, we won. Thank you to everyone who attended and we are looking forward to having another Tiger Tailgate in the future.

The AIAMI Design Retreat is just around the corner and we are excited for this year's presentation line up! (I have attached the flyer below). You can also view the flyer and register on our website, just be sure to register before September 6th to take advantage of the early registration discount!

Event information for the Annual Meeting on October 25th will be available soon as well. Watch the website for future updates!

Have a great week and we hope you stop by the Beaubien House for a visit or a tour if you are in Detroit!

Sincerely,

Cathy Mosley, Hon. Aff., AIAMI
AIA Michigan Executive Director

We all want vibrant, sustainable, and livable communities: historical buildings help. Joining the past to the present and the present to the past is not always easy. Done thoughtfully, preservation can knit past and present together to create a whole greater than the sum of the parts.

Kendall is honored to have Mayor George Heartwell, City of Grand Rapids and Brian Conway, Michigan State Historic Preservation Officer, to give opening and closing remarks, as well as an impressive group of panelists, including: Ron Bogle, president of American Architecture Foundation from Washington DC and Robert Theel, General Services Administration from Chicago.

Location: Kendall College of Art and Design's Historic Federal Building in downtown Grand Rapids

When: Friday, September 6, 2013 (5:30pm Reception, 6:30pm Program).

Space is limited. Please RSVP early.
